A Little Advice!

For the last two or three weeks we have lot our "AD," run without change, knowing that it was doing good work. We have thought that a little advice about the keeping and whipping of our CREAM might be appreciated.

It should be kept in ICE COLD WATER un-til wauted for use, and then there will be no trouble about its whipping in good shape, We have pure milk and can supply in any quantity at short notice.

Ice cream manufacturers and large users of recam manutacturers and arge users of cream are especially requested to call for prices, and give our cream a trial. Cream will be delivered at any point in the city or suburbs if enough is ordered at one time to make it an object, or will be shipped by express to any point in the state.

The choicest makes of Creamery Butter always on hand. We sell for each Four Pound Prints for $1.00. Our line of GROCERIES, FRUITS, Etc., are Our telephone call has been changed to 733-4 Respectfully,

THE HOUSE RUSHED BUSINESS

New Haven College of Dentistry-New Haven Charter Bills Passed-Many Other Bills of Public Interest-Entertaine Friends at Cosey Beach.

Hartford, June 21.-The house of rep esentatives got a galt on lo-day and rushed business through with an expedition that surprised every one. Such promptness has not been observable before this session. Speaker Fessenden co-operated with the house and ansounced the bills with remarkable rapdity. There were seventy bills and resolutions starred for action and the greater number were disposed of.

The senate was not in session to-day The house convened at 10:30 a.m. with Speaker Fessenden in the chair. Bills were passed incorporating the College of Dentistry in New Haven and the New Haven Real Estate Title com-

The resolution appointing a commis-sioner to examine the entire subject of state expenses was explained by Mr Wood of Derby. He said: "It was nec esary to go into the matter of the state appropriations very carefully. many of the expenses, particularly the udicial expenses, have grown enormous ly. We therefore recommended the ap-pointment of a committee of five to go nto the entire matter and to report to the next general assembly."

Mr. Converse of Stafford, chairman of the committee on appropriations, spoke highly of the great aid rendered the committee by Colonel Wood, who differed from the other members politi-The bill was tabled on motion of Mr.

Colonel Wood explained the bill appropriating $12,000 for the erection of a dormitory for girls at Storrs college, and the bill passed.

Mr. Downer of Hamden said the state of Connecticut should stop throwing way any more money among those HAVEN CHARTER BILLS

PASSED. These New Haven bills were briefly xplained by Mr. Williams of the committee on cities and boroughs and passed without opposition: Relating to adjustment, correction and settlement of taxes and assessments due the town, city and school districts of New Haven resolution relating to the sprinkling of streets in the city of New Haven; resolution consolidating the governments of the city and town of New Haven, sub-stitute for house bill No. 37; also house joint resolution No. 466, a substitute for house bill No. 39, a resolution amending the charter of the city of New Haven iouse joint resolution No. 467, substitute for house bill No. 39, resolution amend ing the charter of the city of New Haven, and house joint resolution No. 470, substitute for house bill No. 41, a resolution providing for a reassessment of taxable real estate in New Haven.

Other bills passed were: Bill providng for the fining of any minor who obtains liquor under false representation bill authorizing the town of Cromwell to leade bonds; amending the charter of the city of Willimantic; bill providing that the expense of building and main-taining bridges between any two towns, unless otherwise specified by law, shall he maintained by the towns in propor tion to their tax Hsts; bill concerning elzures of intoxicating Equors; bill oncerning the election of the collectors of town taxes; bill concerning service of process upon foreign corporations; bill concerning bounds of highways and streets; bill concerning public records; bill concerning the exemption from taxation of private corporations; resolution providing for appointment of commis-sioners for the national military parks. The resolution appropriates money for the erection of a monument to the Fifth and Twentieth regiments, which particlsated in the battle of Chickamagua. The resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution regarding the members in the house of representatives and the formation of representaive's districts, unfavorably reported, was rejected Mr. Clark of Haddam moved to re-call from the senate the bill regarding temporary homes, but the matter was dropped owing to the lack of a quorum. A report was made appointing Herbert O. Bowers judge, and Charles E. House deputy judge of the court in

It is now expected the legislature will adjourn sine die next Thursday. Next Wednesday Representative Parker of Saybrook will present to the republican caucus the name of Henry R. Wooster of Deep River for school fund commissioner. Mr. Woos ter is treasurer of the Deep River Sav ings bank, director of the National bank and a smart financier. Mr. Parker says Mr. Wooster would make an excellent commissioner. Representative Granniss of East Haven voted against the bill doing away with the office of school fund commissioner and for reinvesting the funds in this state. His name was omitted from the report. Representative Eaton of North Haven entertained several representa-tives at his cottage at Cosey Beach last evening. He first gave them a ride to Lake Saltonsull and then all partook of a shore dinner at the Forbes house Morris Cove. The party consisted of Messrs. Jackson of Woodstock, Pendleton of Stonington and Hail of Wil lington, members of the railroad com mittee, to which Mr. Eaton belongs, and Mr. Vinton of Mansfield, An Important bill pending before the eneral assembly limits the right of street rallway and cable companies to sue bonds. It provides that no stree railway or cable company shall would bonds in excess of 50 per centum o the actual cost of construction and equipment of such railway.

A favorable report was made to-day y the joint committee on constitutional mendments on an amendment to the onstitution providing for increasing the senate to not less than twenty-five and not more than forty-five members. The senate this week killed a some-

June 21.-It hardly seems necessary o say that the report of the proceedings of the selectmen at their last sesdon was closely scanned, and when it ecame generally known that the de nands of our esteemed townsman had een utterly ignored a howl of rage and disappointment went up that caused even those who are accustomed to scenes of riot and bloodshed to shake in their shoes and only the coolness of a few level-headed men prevented an outbreak. It is reported that some of these officials when approached in regard to the matter have replied in the anguage of a departed statesman and with the same show of contempt, "What are you going to do about it?" As here seems to be some doubts concernng the truth of the report, the propogarded with much favor. Wait unti he next town election, say the more conservative, and we will put in a little ulet but effective work that will conrince these men that the rights of a consitive and confiding people cannot e trampled upon with impunity.
